The 75 Club: in honor of our 75th anniversary season

In 2010, the Santa Fe Concert Association was honored to receive a generous bequest from the estate of longtime supporter and concert-goer Frances Essig. Per her testamentary wishes, the funds she left us will be used as the nucleus for an endowment fund.

Won't you consider doing as Frances did, and completing a bequest, charitable remainder trust, or other planned giving instrument to support the Association? Such a gift will help ensure the ongoing success and refinement of our programs, and be a powerful statement of belief in our work and outreach. For more information on bequests and planned giving, please contact the office at 505-984-8759.
